Every game of Quake
Every move you make
Every death you fake
Every rule you break - I'll be dodging you.

Every single day
Every time we play
Though you'd scream and pray
You can't make me stay - I'll be dodging you.

Oh can't you see
Your ass belongs to me
My old railgun shakes
For every death I make ....

Every move you make
Every rule you break
Every death you fake
Every quad you take - I'll be dodging you.

Since you're here, I've been gone, without a trace
I'm wishing that I could only see your face
I look around but there's nobody that plays
I feel so bored and I want a proper chase
I keep laughing, shaking stop it pleeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeease ...

- pause -

Oh can't you see
Your ass belongs to me
How my rail gun shakes
For every death I make ....

Every move you make
Every rule you break
Every death you fake
Every quad you take - I'll be dodging you.

Every rule you break
Every death you fake - I'll be dodging you.

I'll be dodging you ...

(choir Every .. Every ..Every..)
